
Programmes Intern

Department Introduction

Asia Art Archive's Programmes team curates a variety of public programmes that introduces its collections on recent art history from Asia to diverse audiences. These talks, workshops, residencies, exhibitions, and performances provide platforms for multidisciplinary research and dialogue that rethink contemporary art in the region and beyond.

Responsibilities

The Programmes Intern will assist in facilitating the preparation, production, and publicity of public programmes in spring 2021, including a Wikipedia edit-a-thon, an exhibition drawing on AAA's Research Collection, and AAA's presentation at the non-profit section of Art Basel in Hong Kong 2021.

REQUIREMENTS

- Excellent command of written Chinese and English
- Attention to detail
- Strong communication skills
- Interest in contemporary art in Asia
- Proficiency in Photoshop is an asset
- Duration: Part-time commitment from February to May 2021 (2–3 days per week, 24 days in total)

Application
