
LEARNING & PARTICIPATION INTERN

DEPARTMENT INTRODUCTION

Learning & Participation (L&P) shapes art and education in Hong Kong by offering programmes and online resources for teachers' professional development. It strives to address the regional lack of contemporary art materials in education and works closely with educators and artists to explore the role of art in twenty-first century education.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The L&P Intern will assist the team to activate AAA's collections, promote knowledge sharing, and engage in educational initiatives. The intern will provide valuable support in organising Teaching Labs 2024, conducting collections research for school visits to AAA, collaborating with artist-educators to develop and consolidate online resources, and effectively executing social media campaigns.

REQUIREMENTS

- Curiosity and genuine interest in contemporary art and culture
- Fluency in written English and Chinese
- Strong communication skills
- Strong research skills
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office and Photoshop
- Duration: Part-time commitment from February to May 2024 (2–3 days per week, 30 days in total)
