
Editorial Intern

Department Introduction

The Editorial team works closely with all departments to shape the organisation's voice, producing print and digital materials for a wide audience. One of the main areas of focus is LIKE A FEVER, AAA's online publishing platform.

Responsibilities

The Editorial Intern will assist in researching materials for LIKE A FEVER, with most of their time spent conducting literature reviews and identifying compelling topics and writers. The intern might also assist in workshopping LIKE A FEVER drafts, communicating with potential writers, transcribing interviews, and preparing materials for publication.

Requirements

- Strong analytical skills and the ability to explain complex ideas in more accessible terms are essential
- Able to write clearly and succinctly
- Able to work independently
- Design and/or translation abilities are not required, but feel free to mention them in your CV/application form for our consideration
- Duration: Part-time commitment from July to November 2025 (2-3 days per week, 30 days in total)

Application

Please return a copy of the internship application form, writing samples (they do not have to be published material), and a CV to learn@aaa.org.hk by Friday, 6 June 2025. Please note that we do not provide visa support for this position and only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

For questions or enquiries about the Internship Programme, please contact Jocelin Kee at jocelin@aaa.org.hk or +852 2844 1112 (Ext.150).